Merv Davis Bursary

The Merv Davis bursary was established for youth formerly in government care, residing in the Tri-cities and Ridge Meadows area, who wish to pursue a vocational, trade, or academic post-secondary program at an accredited BC institution.

Who can apply

- You are a former youth in care either under a continuing custody order (CCO) or temporary custody order (TCO, Voluntary Care Agreement or Special Care Agreement) or Youth Agreement in BC under the Child, Family and Community Services Act.
- You are 19 or over by the application deadline date.
- You are currently residing in Coquitlam, Maple Ridge, Port Coquitlam, Port Moody or Pitt Meadows.
- You are currently enrolled or planning to enroll in a post-secondary academic, technical or vocational program, a recognized public post-secondary institution, or a registered private post-secondary institution. A letter of confirmation should be included with your application.
- You are able to provide two reference letters from two significant people in your life (e.g. teacher, social worker, foster parent or friend). One of the letters needs to be written by a non-family member.

When to apply

Applications will be accepted in May of each year.

Amount of bursary

One annual bursary of $500 will be distributed. Recipients are limited to the awarding of one bursary annually.
